Every year on the first weekend in May, dozens of pottery studios in Maine open their doors to the public. The weather is warming, the gardens are starting, and it's a great weekend to get a look at life as a potter in Maine.

13 Coastal Maine pottery studios will be offering demos, sales, and giveaways. Try the wheel, paint a plate, and shop for great handmade items, direct from the hands that made them.

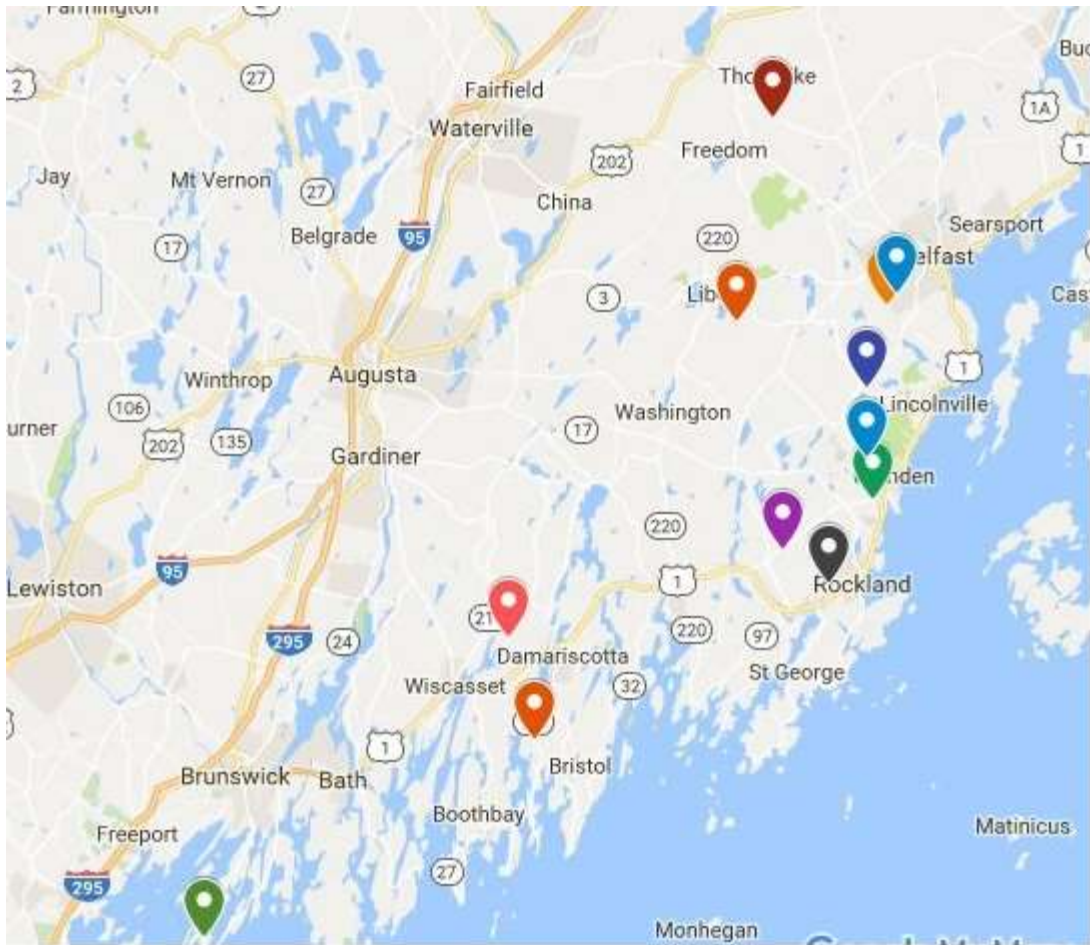

Saturday May 6, 10-5
Sunday May 7, 11-4

To see a full list of all 39 participating studios, check out mainepotterytour.org
